Administrative/Biographical History:

The Fort Concho Chapter of the Daughters of the Republic of Texas was organized 29 April 1945 by Mrs. W.W. Carson. Mrs. Carson served as the Organizing President and Mrs. Robert E. Gordon as Secretary-Treasurer. At the meeting on 2 June 1945, Mrs. Clint Johnson suggested the local chapter be named Fort Concho Chapter.

Throughout its existence, this organization has dedicated itself to the study and preservation of Texas History, not only within the organization, but especially with the school students of the Concho Valley.

Scope and Content:

Collection consists of scrapbooks compiled by the society 1945-1991; booklets of annual meetings, 1893-1895 and 1931-1999; 2 boxes of business records, 1945-1992; DRT Newsletters from the 1990's; and one book, Fifty Years of Achievement: History of the Daughters of the Republic of Texas.
